“EVERYWHERE IS HOME”

“It’s quite extraordinary, I never imagined that travelling in this way could be so liberating. There is a sense of apparently endless space on your own doorstep. And such a friendly atmosphere too. It really was the perfect get-away.”

Sophisticated travellers have the opportunity to own or stay in one of the 165 private luxury residences aboard The World. Ranging from chic one-bedroom studios to elegant 2-3 bedroom apartments, all of our residences are private homes: customised and furnished to exacting specifications and individually adapted to suit each of us. All of them provide an irresistible blend of comfort, privacy and security with exceptional design.

“THE EXECUTIVE CHEF GOT SOME LOBSTERS STRAIGHT OFF THE BOAT TODAY, CAN I TEMPT YOU TO TRY ONE?”

Imagine dinner on the deck, just two of you, enjoying some locally-caught shell-fish... and for breakfast, you could pop out for a freshly baked croissant and a delicious cappuccino at our deli... and perhaps a succulent steak lunch with new friends at one of our restaurants. Onboard The World, the dining choices are almost limitless – from the convenience of our own onboard grocery to the gastronomic experience of our renowned restaurants, from local specialities to home comforts, from elegant and festive to cosy and quiet.

Our 5,000-bottle cellar reflects how seriously we take the wine list onboard and, travelling the world as we do, we delight in discovering hard-to-find additions from local vintners. Our sommeliers love to share their in-depth knowledge and expertise about our collection; from hidden gems to world-famous classics, from table wines to the finest vintners. And wine owners from local vineyards join us to introduce their favourites too. Discover new flavours, savour treasured greats and learn about wine from the industry's finest.

“ We usually rent a villa or sail on other luxury yachts or ships, but this year we chose to stay aboard The World and it was the best decision we made. All of us, even the grandchildren, loved meeting others who delight in travel and are open to new adventures just like us. One night we invited a few friends to the apartment for a wonderful dinner prepared by one of the chefs – we enjoyed an evening of good wine and funny stories. The next night we went ashore to one of the quaint local cafés – the choice is endless. ”

LIFE AT SEA

“ Even when it’s a day at sea there’s a world of entertainment and activity on board waiting to be explored and enjoyed. From swimming in one of the pools, golf practise, tennis tournaments and sessions with personal trainers to browsing – well, maybe more than browsing – at the only Graff Boutique at sea. There’s something for everyone. ”

“ As one of the families to live this extraordinary life, we are so fortunate. We enjoy the journey without time pressures or stress. The service is attentive, charming, and always one step ahead. The connectivity means you can easily stay in touch with home and if need be, business as well. They have everything we would expect to find and more, right here in one place, yet in every place as we travel the world... ”
